20th March 2018

Dear parents,

I would like to invite you to come into school to attend a SATs information and practise session next Tuesday afternoon (27th March) at 2.30pm.

I will explain the SATs procedures and how they will run within school. There will be some SATs style papers for you to look at to give you an idea of what is expected from your child when they sit their papers in May.

I will also be giving you some ideas on how to help your child at home with regard to their comprehension skills. This will then lead onto a practical session where you can have a go at using these skills with your child.

Please can you fill in the reply slip below to indicate if you are able to attend.

Thanks

Fiona Cox
