

‘All individuals matter’

Charging and Remissions Policy

Date Ratified by Governors	March 2026
Review Date	March 2027
Signed by Chair of Governors	L.Grove
Name of Chair	Mrs Lynsey Grove

Aims

Our school aims to:

- Have robust, clear processes in place for charging and remissions.
- Clearly set out the types of activity that can be charged for and when charges will be made.

Legislation and guidance

This policy is based on advice from the Department for Education (DfE) on charging for school activities and the Education Act 1996, sections 449-462 of which set out the law on charging for school activities in maintained schools in England. Charging for school activities - GOV.UK

Definitions

- Charge: a fee payable for specifically defined activities
- Remission: the cancellation of a charge which would normally be payable.

Roles and responsibilities

The Governing Board

The governing board has overall responsibility for approving the charging and remissions policy, but can delegate this to a committee, an individual governor or the Headteacher. The governing board also has overall responsibility for monitoring the implementation of this policy.

The Headteacher

The Headteacher is responsible for ensuring staff are familiar with the charging and remissions policy, and that it is being applied consistently.

Staff

Our staff are responsible for:

- Implementing the charging and remissions policy consistently
- Notifying the Headteacher of any specific circumstances which they are unsure about or where they are not certain if the policy applies.

The senior leadership team will provide staff with appropriate training in relation to this policy and its implementation.

Parents

Parents are expected to notify staff or the Headteacher of any concerns or queries regarding the charging and remissions policy.

Where charges cannot be made

Education

- Admission applications
- Education provided during school hours (including the supply of any materials, books, instruments or other equipment)
- Education provided outside school hours if it is part of:
 - The national curriculum
 - Religious Education
- Instrumental or vocal tuition, for pupils learning individually or in groups, unless the tuition is provided at the request of the pupil's parent.

Transport

- Transporting registered pupils to or from the school premises, where the local authority has a statutory obligation to provide transport
- Transporting registered pupils to other premises where the governing board or local authority has arranged for pupils to be educated
- Transport provided in connection with an educational visit.

Residential visits (also see section 8)

- Education provided on any visit that takes place during school hours
- Education provided on any visit that takes place outside school hours if it is part of:
 - The national curriculum
 - A syllabus for a prescribed public examination that the pupil is being prepared for at the school
 - Religious education
- Supply teachers to cover for those teachers who are absent from school accompanying pupils on a residential visit.

The school may request voluntary contributions (see section 7) where charges cannot be made.

Where charges can be made

Education

- Any materials, books, instruments or equipment, where the child's parent wishes him or her to own them
- Optional extras (see below)
- Music and vocal tuition, in limited circumstances
- Certain early years provision Community facilities.

Optional extras

We can charge for activities known as 'optional extras. In these cases, the school can charge for providing materials, books, instruments or equipment. The following are optional extras:

- Education provided outside of school time that is not part of:
 - The national curriculum
 - Religious education
- Transport (other than transport that is required to take the pupil to school or to other premises where the local authority/governing board has arranged for the pupil to be provided with education)
- Board and lodging for a pupil on a residential visit
- Non-educational activities on a residential visit
- Activities not linked to the National Curriculum on a residential visit
- Extended day services offered to pupils (such as breakfast clubs, after-school clubs, tea and supervised homework sessions).

When calculating the cost of optional extras, an amount may be included in relation to:

- Any materials, books, instruments or equipment provided in connection with the optional extra
- The cost of buildings and accommodation
- Non-teaching staff
- Teaching staff engaged under contracts for services purely to provide an optional extra (including supply teachers engaged specifically to provide the optional extra)
- The cost, or an appropriate proportion of the costs, for teaching staff employed to provide tuition in playing a musical instrument, or vocal tuition, where the tuition is an optional extra.

Any charge made in respect of individual pupils will not be greater than the actual cost of providing the optional extra activity, divided equally by the number of pupils participating.

Any charge will not include an element of subsidy for any other pupils who wish to take part in the activity, but whose parents are unwilling or unable to pay the full charge.

In cases where a small proportion of the activity takes place during school hours, the charge cannot include the cost of alternative provision for those pupils who do not wish to participate. Parental agreement is necessary for the provision of an optional extra which is to be charged for.

Parents will be informed how the charge will be worked out and who might qualify for help with the cost (or even get it for free).

Music tuition

The school can charge for vocal or instrumental tuition provided either individually or to groups of pupils, provided that the tuition is provided at the request of the pupil's parent.

Charges may not exceed the cost of the provision, including the cost of the staff giving the tuition.

Charges cannot be made:

- If the teaching is an essential part of the national curriculum
- If the teaching is provided under the first access to the Key Stage 2 instrumental and vocal tuition programme
- For a pupil who is looked after by a local authority

Letters

The school reserves the right to charge parents a minimum of £2.00 per letter for any requests for letters compiled by the school in support of certain external applications such as, (but not exhaustive):

- Housing Support Application
- Immigration Application
- State Benefits Application (including Universal Credit)
- The cost will cover the time to write the letter, and the materials to print a hard copy

Voluntary contributions

As an exception to the requirements set out in section 5 of this policy, the school can ask for voluntary contributions from parents to fund activities during school hours which would not otherwise be possible.

Some activities for which the school may ask parents for voluntary contributions include school visits and sports activities.

There is no obligation for parents to make any contribution, and no child will be excluded from an activity if their parents are unwilling or unable to pay.

If the school is unable to raise enough funds for an activity or visit, then it may be cancelled.

Activities School charge for

The school will charge for the following activities:
Breakfast, after-school and sports clubs that are run by outside agencies.

For regular activities, the charges for each activity will be determined by the Senior Leadership Team and reviewed each year.
Parents will be informed of the charges for the coming year in July.

Residential visits

The school organises residential visits primarily for the following purposes:

- Confidence and character building
- Health and wellbeing
- Environmental awareness
- Broadened horizons

Residential visits that this school organises are non-educational and focus on outdoor social and adventurous activities.

We can charge for:

- Board and lodging* (for exceptions please see Remissions section below)
- Non educational activities
- Activities not linked to the National Curriculum
- Transport

However, the charge must not exceed the actual cost.

Remissions for residential visits

Parents whose child/ren are eligible for free school meals or pupil premium and/or they can prove they are in receipt of the following benefits, will be exempt from paying the cost of board and lodging for residential visits:

- Universal credit in prescribed circumstances
- Income Support
- Income Based Jobseekers Allowance
- Support under part VI of the Immigration and Asylum Act 1999
- Child Tax Credit, provided that Working Tax Credit is not also received and the family's income (as assessed by Her Majesty's Revenue and Customs) does not exceed £16,190
- The guaranteed element of State Pension Credit
- An income related employment and support allowance that was introduced on 27 October 2008
- No charge will be made in respect of a pupil who is looked after by a local authority. (Post looked After Children or Looked After children).

Other Remissions

In some circumstances the school may not charge for items or activities set out in sections 6 and 8 of this policy. This will be at the discretion of the governing board and will depend on the activity in question.

Monitoring arrangements

The School Business Manager monitors charges and remissions and ensures these comply with this policy.
