All Individuals Matter

The Government has informed us that schools must close to the majority of pupils at the end of the day on Friday 20th March. However, if key workers or at risk pupils require childcare then schools should put plans in place. We are currently assessing the needs of our school community and will, as always, respond accordingly to offer the best support we can. Guidance from government will be used to assess need and provision put in place accordingly.

The best advice is to stay away from public areas, including schools, and remain in your own homes. However, we understand that some frontline workers, who are working hard to combat this virus, may need our support. If you think this applies to your circumstances, please complete this form and return TOMORROW MORNING (Friday 20th March)

We intend for children to complete literacy and numeracy activities as their peers will do, but in the school setting and we will use the activity grid sent out to all parents via Twitter for activities in the afternoon.

Complete this form if you believe you and your partner might be considered a "Key Worker" or your child is in an "at risk" group.

You only need to complete the form once per family, simply add all children names below.
