RACIST INCIDENTS POLICY

Part 1: Introduction

The Race Relations (Amendment) Act 2000 requires that we take active steps to eliminate unlawful racial discrimination, to promote equality of opportunity and to promote good race relations between persons of different racial groups. We take a positive approach to this duty through our equality policy and take steps to build cohesive communities through our curriculum, teaching practices and staffing arrangements.

Part 2: Procedures for dealing with racist incidents

In the event that racist incidents take place in the school, we have a duty and responsibility to deal with these effectively.

A racist incident is defined as: 'any incident which is perceived to be racist by the victim or any other person'. The definition is such to prevent pre-judging the circumstances and nature of the offence.

Racist behaviour can manifest in various forms, for example:

- Physical assault
- Physical intimidation
- Verbal abuse
- Insensitive/inappropriate remarks
- Racist graffiti
- Written comments/drawings
- Abuse of/damage to personal property
- Non-co-operation/disrespect

In dealing with and handling any such incidents that might arise, we work to the guidance from the Local Authority. This defines levels of offence, and the appropriate body to handle them. Lower level incidents we will handle within the school. However, incidents which are defined as crimes, we are duty bound to report to the Police Authority.

In following these procedures, we will record all racist incidents that are investigated and any actions undertaken.

Part 3: Reporting racist incidents

We ask for a written report to be taken from any member of the school community and recorded immediately. The Head Teacher will receive and handle all such reports and inform the Governors of the School. School tracking grids are maintained and are the responsibility of all staff to keep updated.

Part 4: Reviewing reports received

Upon the receipt of a reported possible racist incident, the Head teacher and management of the School will determine with immediate priority whether the incident constitutes a matter of child protection (the determination is whether the child or young person is likely to suffer 'significant harm' – as defined by The Children Act 1999). If the issue is of child protection it would be immediately referred to the relevant school staff member responsible for such issues and procedures followed from the Safeguarding Policy.

If the incident does not constitute a child protection issue then an internal investigation will take place to establish whether the incident occurred and whether the motivation was racist. Upon determination, and conditional on the severity of the incident, the school will take appropriate action with both the victim and the perpetrator and involve outside agencies as appropriate.

Where relevant, other policies within the school may be used to handle any alleged incidents. Our Anti-bullying policy, Child Protection policy and staffing procedures are all related.

Part 5: Monitoring and review

The governing body monitors this policy on a regular basis. The governing body gives serious consideration to any comments from parents about the school's policy and makes a record of all such comments. The governing body consults the staff and the Headteacher to make modifications as necessary to ensure that provision is strong for all children.
